This refurbished Stately (36'x20') park home is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy to maintain, bungalow-style property. The home features a spacious kitchen and dining area, living space, and two bedrooms. The exterior features a garden area and a driveway.

This residential development features 42 homes and is exclusive for the over 50s. The park offers peaceful and tranquil living while being close to local amenities including shops, golf courses and a bus stop. The park home lifestyle provides community living for like-minded people and this park is also pet friendly.

The development is in a desirable location just 1 mile from the picturesque village of Headcorn and 50 miles from London. A mainline Ashford to London train line runs through the village providing a frequent commuter service to the capital. The park is 11 miles from Maidstone and 13 miles from Ashford. You can also take advantage of Kent's position as the nearest part of England to France and hop across the Channel and stock up on fine cheeses and wines.

Age restriction: Over 50's
Pet friendly: Yes
Site fees: £275 per month
