

Carter Hall Park, Acre, Lancashire, BB4

£40,000

This one-bedroom park home bungalow is well presented. It is positioned on a sought-after development with a garden area. The home has a kitchen and separate living room, one large double bedroom and a shower room. The roof was replaced in 2023 and the home needs some moderation.

Carter Hall Park is an established and welcoming residential development in a quiet and peaceful area of Rossendale and offers its residents a relaxing pace of life. This development is in the Victorian village of Acre, where you can find local amenities within walking distance from the park. To the north of the development is the town of Accrington, where you can find the nearest train station and town facilities. Manchester is 20 miles from the park.
