This brand-new Willerby Hazlewood (36'x20') is a fully furnished and equipped park home with a traditional exterior and interior design. The home traditionally styled with clean lines and simple styling; a perfect canvas to add your own finishing touches and make it your own.

This tranquil residential park is well-established, and situated in the reputable village of Bromham, near the heart of Bedfordshire. The park itself is staggered on a hill so one side of the park has homes with country views and those on the far left are alongside a stream. The bus stop is directly at the park entrance and a local shop half a mile away.

Bromham Village provides most of the day-to-day amenities as well as stunning countryside views. The local area is dotted with points of interest - castles and other historic sites. Bromham has a range of walks and footpaths, perfect nature-lovers. The local paths are supported by the village's own Walking Group. Bedford town also has multiple reserves, parks and lakes, off the River Great Ouse.
