

Forres, Morayshire, IV36

Price as listed

This brand new, modern-furnished Willerby Buxton (40'x12') luxury lodge is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy to maintain, bungalow style property. The lodge features an open plan kitchen, dining and living space, a double bedroom with an en suite, a twin bedroom and a bathroom with a walk-in shower. This lodge is situated on the leisure side of the park.

This countryside development is a welcoming and peaceful environment that offers residential and holiday homes. The park has a reception and full time manager on site parking and wifi. There is also on site parking, a coffee lounge and forest and river walks.

Situated on the Moray coast, Forres, is one of Scotland's oldest towns having won several Britain in Bloom and Scotland in Bloom competitions for its beautiful floral displays. In the town you will find your everyday requirements; post office, health centres, vets, leisure centre, chemists, and food superstores. Other local towns include Nairn, also known Brighton of the North, and Elgin, a thriving shopping town with many well-known high street shops.
