

Forres, Scotland, IV36

Price as listed

This pre-owned (40'x20') park home is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy to maintain, bungalow style property. The home has a modern, open plan kitchen, dining and living area with doors leading out to the decking and garden. The home has a double bedroom with an en suite and a second twin bedroom and bathroom. The home has a large, fenced garden with two storage sheds, parking for two cars and views of the surrounding countryside.

Situated on the Moray coast, Forres, is one of Scotland's oldest towns having won several Britain in Bloom and Scotland in Bloom competitions for its beautiful floral displays. In the town you will find your everyday requirements, post office, health centres, vets, leisure centre, chemists, and food superstores. Other local towns include Nairn, also known Brighton of the North, and Elgin, a thriving shopping town with many well-known high street shops.
