This brand-new, modern-furnished luxury park home is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy-to-maintain, bungalow-style property. The home has an open plan kitchen, dining and living room. The kitchen has a large cooker, plenty of storage and an island to add extra surface space. The living area has an electric fireplace and double doors leading to a decking area that overlooks the park. There are two bedrooms, the master has a walk-in wardrobe and an en suite. The lodge-style home is fully furnished with stylish beds, plush sofas and modern touches.

The area has lots of historic interest dating back to the 16th century. The location of the park provides easy access to the local attractions, nearby beaches, walking routes and landmarks. A short drive from the park is Talacre Beach with its sand dunes and iconic lighthouse. Historic landmarks nearby include the Duke of Lancaster Ship, St Winefride's Well, Flint Castle, Bodelwyddan Castle, and Prestatyn Roman Fort.
